Handling of Personal Information

minnato YOKOHAMA – Yokohama B-Corsairs Multicultural Community Project
Basketball Day Camp at YC&AC (28 November 2026)

This notice explains how the Yokohama Country & Athletic Club handles the personal information you provide when applying for this event. Please read it before completing the consent questions at the end of the application form. The form should be completed by a parent or guardian.

1. Who collects your information

Yokohama Country & Athletic Club ("YC&AC"), a public interest incorporated association

2. Purposes of use

(1) Registration, participant management, event operations and communication with participants
(2) Provision of meals and response to food allergies and dietary needs
(3) Response to accidents, sudden illness and other emergencies
(4) Enrolment in accident insurance
(5) Information about this event and similar future events
(6) Statistical evaluation of this programme (the Multicultural Community Project)

3. Provision to Yokohama B-Corsairs

[Recipient] Yokohama B-Corsairs Co., Ltd. (event organiser)
[Items provided] Participant name and furigana, school year, gender, area of residence, parent/guardian name, email address, emergency contact number, basketball experience, how you heard about the event, reasons for applying, and your answers to the optional evaluation questions
[Purposes] 2 (1), (3), (4), (5) and (6) above
[Method] Transfer of a password-protected electronic file

Information about food allergies, dietary needs and physical condition (medical conditions, injuries) is handled only by designated YC&AC staff and kitchen team and by B-Corsairs coaching staff, strictly to the extent necessary for safety management, first aid and meal provision. It is not used for programme evaluation.

Information necessary for accident insurance is also provided to the insurer.

4. Handling for programme evaluation

Evaluation of this programme is carried out by EY Strategy and Consulting Co., Ltd. ("the service provider"), engaged by Yokohama B-Corsairs.

Before your name, email address and telephone number are passed to the service provider, they are converted into a form that does not directly identify you. The service provider analyses the survey results without being able to identify individuals.

Only the converted reference ID and the response data needed for evaluation are provided to the service provider. Your name, email address and telephone number are not provided.

This reference ID may be used to match your answers with your responses to a post-event survey and with information collected at other events under this programme, for statistical analysis.

Results are published and reported only in a form that does not identify individuals.

5. Special care-required personal information

Information about physical condition (medical conditions, injuries) and food allergies may constitute " special care-required personal information" under Japan's Act on the Protection of Personal Information. It is collected and used only for the purposes set out in section 3 above, and is not used for programme evaluation.

6. Optional questions

Questions marked "Optional" may be left blank. Choosing not to answer will not affect your application, your participation, or how you are treated on the day.

7. Retention period

Information is deleted or securely disposed of [one year] after completion of the programme report.

8. If you do not consent

The handling described in 2 (1)-(5) and 3 above is essential to running the event safely, and we regret that we cannot accept applications without your consent.

Consent to matching with information from other events under this programme (part of section 4) is optional.

9. Enquiries, disclosure and correction requests

For requests to disclose, correct or suspend use of your personal information, or any other enquiry about this notice, please contact:

Yokohama Country & Athletic Club - Personal Information Enquiries

TEL：045-623-8121 E-mail：concierge@ycac.jp

Yokohama Country & Athletic Club – September 2026. This is a translation provided for convenience; in the event of any discrepancy, the Japanese text prevails. The Japanese version is available separately.